Live Subtitler Crack is a lightweight and straightforward application specifically designed to help you search and play subtitles even if the video player does not support it. Easy to use subtitle player The clear-cut and intuitive interface of the tool displays the buttons of its main functions. An essential aspect is that it becomes transparent in a few moments after it's out of focus from your mouse cursor. As such it conceals the buttons and enables you to view your favorite movie and overlap the subtitles. Furthermore, Live Subtitler allows you to play or pause the subtitles and to jump to the next dialog, in order to synchronize them with your film. You can also go to a desired subtitle line by specifying its number or its time in hours, minutes, seconds and milliseconds. Using this app you can open files in SRT or SUB formats, which are the most common ones. Thus it should be enough to meet the needs of any user. Find and download subtitles Another important feature Live Subtitler provides you with is the ability to search for subtitles online. What you need to do is specify the name of the movie you want to find subtitles for, then select their language. The program displays all the results with various information, such as the ID on the website, the time it was uploaded at, full name and release year of the movie. In case you are searching for a series, Live Subtitler displays the season and episode the subtitles are for. Additionally, it offers you the possibility to just play the subtitles or download them to your computer. It is worth mentioning that the software utility does not require installation, thus not creating any registry entries on you Windows system, but in order to launch it you need to have Java installed. Live Subtitler requires Java 7 or above.
