The great city of Tehrin is fallen, its people scattered like grains of sand. Yet its crumbling edifices still drip with portent, secrets and nightmares! A child is dead and its family ruined, other families have lost their loved ones, and the townsfolk are afraid. The former mayor had disappeared. No one seems to know his fate. A man risks his life to uncover the truth. He does not even know why he has been brought to Tehrin. On the surface, all is calm. As he wanders the haunted streets, a feeling of foreboding descends. But the great city is a dangerous place, and the greatest dangers are the truths which lie deep within. Your mission begins as a search for a missing man, but soon you will have to enter into Tehrin's most cursed and secret place: the Caverns. Here, blood flows deep with a battle-tested breed of resident dragon. But when the dragon's rage rages, the earth itself opens up and a terrifying red hell descends upon you. Now your own fears shall send you plummeting into a deep and dark descent into the abyss... Immerse yourself in the dangers of Tehrin and see if you can unlock the mysteries of the caverns. • A short story game with over 90 levels, over 700 enemies and over 300 weapons. • Easy to learn but hard to master levels that will challenge you every step of the way. • Lots of collectibles to find, secrets to uncover and a boss to defeat at the end of each level. • All the enemies are animated and the levels are full of weapons and power-ups. • Each level is created in a modular way, so that you can easily navigate anywhere and everywhere in the game. • You can get rid of all the enemies or collect all the loot in order to have the best ending. • Many of the levels can be replayed with different weapons, achievements and save states in case you want to experience a level again. • A different soundtrack for each level, with a catchy tune for each level and a boss theme for the end of the game. • A lot of collectibles, and secrets and Easter Eggs for each level. • A lot of different levels, weapons and power-ups. • The game can be played with one or two players, but you can challenge a friend or complete a level alone. • You can save and reload your progress at anytime using the main menu. • Play your favorite levels again and again, one after the other, even on a different mode! • Easy controls, super addicting gameplay. • Maximum length of play is limited only by your patience and your energy to keep going on. • Friendly community with lots of players and players with lots of player. • Voice acting in English and Spanish. • Game offers great replay value once you beat it for the first time, so why not to keep playing? This is the only game you will ever need in case of emergency or accident, that will also warm your heart and make you smile, "An Intense Action Game that will not leave you cold" Action A first person action game that will not leave you cold. Lasting Appeal The game can be completed in about an hour and a half, but the game offers great replay value and endless hours of fun. Great Ambiance The game offers different levels and different environments, with different characters and story line, but the game has a great ambiance and atmosphere. Great Graphics The game offers great graphics. High Quality Sound The game offers high quality sound effects and music. High Target Value The game offers great replay

What's new:

€ 68.92 Available Options Very special DJMAX RESPECT V body, upgraded with a new kind of circuitry. Like the original DJMAX RESPECT STR, its design overmold it ability to handle the most demanding and harmful elements of the sound spectrum, all without any adverse or negative effects. The second most important factor that will become the DJMAX RESPECT to be most resented by his users is the exclusive INVOKE Circuit, which will be a breath of fresh air to more experienced DJs and valuable differentiator to the brand. The INVOKE Circuit technology will define the DJMAX RESPECT midrange. It will allow the sound to get under the skin and live deeper into the ear, giving a more dynamic feel and larger frequency range. In addition, all future versions of RESPECT will be free of sounds that are pre-emphasized, and totally focused on producing an ambient experience like never before. The unique 3X design also gives the RESPECT F10 subwoofer a different ergonomics, with a more compact design, narrower profile, cut-out in the bottom of the volume knob, and recessed magnet structure. It also features 2 most important qualities for being a DJ's subwoofer that make it the ideal response for small clubs and stage systems: true linear response and ultra-low frequency (under 100Hz!) sensitivity. Thanks to its synergy with other DJMAX products, the DJMAX RESPECT F10B subwoofer is the best and most powerful DJ subwoofer for small-scale systems on the market today. In addition, DJMax RESPECT F10B subwoofer will have its magnetic structure increased by volume, allowing less amperes to pass through it, keeping the performance perfect. The DJMAX RESPECT V subwoofer presents the same exact features of the DJMAX RESPECT F10B, but with the upgraded exterior design features. This subwoofer is available in both black and silver colors. With heart racing Star Trek: Return to the 25th Century will transport you to an entirely new world. Developed by the legendary team at Holospark Studio and based on the award-winning short film, you will embark on an epic journey to solve a strange anomaly that has been discovered. Experience all the exhilaration of a classic point-and-click adventure game, combined with groundbreaking graphics, highly immersive dialogue and puzzles, and a story that combines Star Trek and Indiana Jones.

TIRED SOLO You've taken your first solo planetary survey. Although the mission went fine, a strange anomaly has been discovered. Geologists want a closer look. It's a routine landing and exploration mission, but things get weirder than expected. With just you and your trusty fold-up VR headset there is no way to get help. If you want to survive, your mission must be completed. You are Lt. Lianka, a new survey officer of the Planetary Survey Corps. The corps collects data on planets and does the first manned landing and exploration. It is one of the most interesting jobs on the Intrepid.

Day 1 The discovery: An anomaly has been found in the satellite images. Puzzle 1: You wake up hurt and confused on a strange uncharted planet. DIFFICULTY MEDIUM Your first solo survey. Geologists ask you to search for an artifact with unknown origins. GAME PLAY You are waking up hurt and confused after a depressurization event on your landing craft. It auto-landed, but barely. Any immediate help from the Intrepid is unlikely, they may not even know where you are. Even if they do, it will be hours before a rescue can be planned. Puzzle 1: Survive and complete your mission. Puzzle 2: Find the artifact and return to the Intrepid. Puzzle 3: If the artifact is not aboard, find your way to the Intrepid. Health - If you get hurt, health points return, but slowly. Death sneaks up on you, take care. There is a health and environmental monitor on your left hand. Difficulty Level - There are three difficulty levels that affect puzzles, items, and health. On the EASY level puzzles are considerably reduced in complexity, you take less damage. The MEDIUM level is no cake walk and presents a good challenge on all fronts. The HARD level, well if you are looking for the
