It is currently published by Universal Pictures, who acquired the film rights as well as the distribution rights and premiered it on February 2, 2018. The studio released the film on March 2, 2018. Synopsis The Burj Khalifa The film tells the story of the Burj Khalifa. The first man to reach the top of the world's tallest structure, by abseil, was Jonathan Green. It premiered in cinemas in Dubai on February 2, 2018, in the United Arab Emirates and in Los Angeles and Toronto on March 2, 2018. Plot When the frame is loaded, the Burj Khalifa is seen lifting off. A Burj Khalifa elevator is then seen descending. With that, the music is replaced with a pulsating background beat and lead in establishing the tone of the movie, calling attention to the idea of a man who goes after a goal and not the achievement, as well as the effects of constant repetition on its main character, Chris Riley. When the screen starts flashing red, fire trucks can be seen. The elevator starts moving and the building continues to rise. A shot of Chris is then followed by an aerial photo of the entire city, including a photograph of a man who goes after his goal and not the achievement, a man that is determined to be Chris Riley. The screens then flash red again, then green. The next shots are of Chris, including his childhood memories. Later, a pan-looking shot of the city, with Chris' photo, flashes green and red on the screen. A shot of Chris eating a sandwich is then seen, followed by a pan-looking shot of Chris in a hospital. A pan-looking shot of the city and Chris' photo flashes green and red on the screen. When the screens flash red again, the elevator is ascending. The next shots are of the Burj Khalifa descending, with Chris's photo flashing green and red on the screen. The Burj Khal
